

Seeks 'Living Memorial'

ECT

icemen's etermine dertaking

Kiwanis Club, leader and ery Tonawandas-boosting e-war, took the lead last he Twin Cities and their om the Armed Forces a ial is meant to perpetu-n have made in the war, eautiful, addition to the nis took cognizance of a of thought on war me-

which has been sweeping ion from coast to coast r grateful hometowners ning memorials to their sons away at war. The ting service club is un-g as its first step toward planning of such a mecavass of local service-ferences regarding "their l" before an actual pro-drafted.

nittee To Be Picked
s Club President Albert tt is to name a "Living morial Committee" this draw up a questionnaire

GERMAN WAR CASUALTY

Pfc. Edwin J. Hummel, Jr., 26, was killed on March 17, while fighting in Germany, a War Department telegram informed his wife, Esther Margaret Hummel of 206-A Gibson street. Pfc. Hummel who arrived overseas early this year was the son of Edwin J. Hummel, Sr. of 153 Thompson street, and the father of three small children.

Stanley Koprowski,
Originally Missing,

QUOTA-BUSTING WIN

These Put th

The final tabulation of United War & Community today reveals in concrete fo etted with the soubriquet, Pacing the State and nation per cent, the grand total amount, the local war-vital, the-war employes contribut the same industrial plants cently sent the record-brea peculiarly enough, by almo the local $53,000 Red Cross

The NEWS takes pleas firms whose employes and ship a continuing thing.

These figures inclu
exec

Name

Ace Manufacturing C
Allan Herschell Co., I
American District Ste
Auto Wheel Coaster
Bartlett, Norman
Battenfeld Grease &
Beacon Devices
Becker Moore & Co.,
Bell Aircraft Corp.
Bennett Lumber Co
Bison Shipbuilding
Buffalo Bolt Co.
Buffalo, Niagara El
Buffalo Pumps, Inc.
Buffalo Slag Co.
Buffalo Steel Co.
Caldwell, Frank E.
Carpenter Bus Lin
Columbus McKinno